

This Is Your Opportunity To Be Involved

MAJOR SPONSOR:$7000

- An Online Exhibit Booth on our prime VIP Exhibitor's Video Booth that is a five minute conversation about your company and up to four links.
- Online you can have as many workshop presentations as you can create over the time of the V Black Expo August – October, 2020. Your workshops will be added per your schedule to accommodate getting your message to the public. We will add your sessions each week as you present them for distribution.
- We are honoring “30 Under 30” African American Achievers during V-Black Expo with their stories of achievement and promise. This incredible aspect of V-Black Expo will be co- sponsored by your company.
- You will have exclusive monthly Zoom Seminars to discuss the opportunities and aspects of your company and how it relates to diversity and economic development for African Americans.
- Your company will be part of the V-Black Expo live radio campaign on the Summer Of Success to speak directly about your programs that bring forth opportunities. These radio interviews will be on 97.5; 102.5 and radio stations within the Northern California region. Your representative will come on air with V-Black Expo to speak directly with the African American community to highlight your programs.
- All posters, flyers and invitations will have your logo as we distribute throughout the communities.
- You will have four commercials airing on the blackexpoonline.com website.
- Super Bonus! The Black College Virtual College Lives For Education will be co-sponsored by your company. This will impact over 100,000 young people that are looking for educational opportunities.
- You will have a full page ad in the online and printed version of Today's Times Newspaper in August, September and October.
- Super Bonus 2! Our Women On Wealth Super Zoom Webinar will hosted by your representatives as well as with some of the most influential Black women in America. This is a major namesake sponsorship opportunity for your company.

Corporate Sponsor $5000.00

- An Online Exhibit Booth on our prime VIP Exhibitor's Video Booth that is a five minute conversation about your company and up to four links.
- Online you can have as many workshop presentations as you can create over the time of the V Black Expo August – October, 2020. Your workshops will be added per your schedule to accommodate getting your message to the public. We will add your sessions each week as you present them for distribution.
- We are honoring “30 Under 30” African American Achievers during V-Black Expo with their stories of achievement and promise. This incredible aspect of V-Black Expo will be co- sponsored by your company.
- You will have exclusive one (1) Zoom Seminar to discuss the opportunities and aspects of your company and how it relates to diversity and economic development for African Americans.
- Your company will be part of the V-Black Expo live radio campaign on the Summer Of Success to speak directly about your programs that bring forth opportunities. These radio interviews will be on 97.5; 102.5 and radio stations within the Northern California region. Your representative will come on air with V-Black Expo to speak directly with the African American community to highlight your programs.
- All posters, flyers and invitations will have your logo as we distribute throughout the communities.
- You will have two commercials airing on the blackexpoonline.com website.
- Super Bonus! The Black College Virtual College Lives For Education will be co-sponsored by your company. This will impact over 100,000 young people that are looking for educational opportunities.
- You will have a full page ad in the online and printed version of Today's Times Newspaper in August, September and October.

Diversity Sponsor: $3500.00

- An Online Exhibit Booth on our prime VIP Exhibitor's Video Booth that is a five minute conversation about your company and up to four links.
- Online you can have as many workshop presentations as you can create over the time of the V Black Expo August – October, 2020. Your workshops will be added per your schedule to accommodate getting your message to the public. We will add your sessions each week as you present them for distribution.
- You will have an exclusive Zoom Seminar to discuss the opportunities and aspects of your company and how it relates to diversity and economic development for African Americans.
- Your company will be part of the V-Black Expo live radio campaign on the Summer Of Success to speak directly about your programs that bring forth opportunities. These radio interviews will be on 97.5; 102.5 and radio stations within the Northern California region. Your representative will come on air with V-Black Expo to speak directly with the African American community to highlight your programs.
- All posters, flyers and invitations will have your logo as we distribute throughout the communities.
- You will have one commercial aired on the blackexpoonline.com website.
- You will have a full page ad in the online and printed version of Today's Times Newspaper in August, September and October.